Soviet Forces Told to Leave

Hungarian Air Force Issues Order; Free Election Won

Bulletin

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—The Hungarian air force tonight threatened to attack the Russian force unless they leave Budapest within 12 hours.

The threat was contained in a proclamation issued at 3 p.m. by the Hungarian air command.

It accused the Soviet troops in Hungary of "constantly violating the cease-fire." It added that all military and economic agreements made by Hungary with Russia in the past should be canceled "because the former Hungarian governments acted under foreign pressure."

The proclamation indicated the Hungarian air force, which is supplied with Soviet jet planes, has gone over to the side of Premier Imre Nagy's government.

after his government had agreed to the demands of the country's revolutionary fighters.

VIENNA (AP)—Hungary's Red government virtually conceded a complete victory to the revolutionary forces today and called on the nation to prepare for free elections.

Premier Imre Nagy announced the one-party Communist system has been abolished.

The Communist Premier told the nation he has called on the Soviet army command to begin immediate withdrawal of Soviet troops from revolt-torn Budapest.

Nagy proposed in a broadcast over Radio Budapest the formation of a coalition government—meaning one of several parties—similar to that established just after the end of World War II in 1945.

The Peasant party and a moderate party of farmers and businessmen called the Smallholders were among the most popular at that time.

The announcement was broadcast.

Fighting slackened off at the Maria Tereza barracks, a rebel stronghold in a week of civil war. Insurgents who had held out against Soviet tank fire marched out defiantly this morning and announced they would not put down their arms until the Russians have left Budapest.

Five Soviet tanks were still parked about 500 yards from the barracks. The government-controlled radio had promised the Russians would start pulling back to their Hungarian bases "after insurgent forces start surrendering their arms." That hour passed without confirmation of any general withdrawal.

Nagy, a veteran Red once imprisoned as a Titoist, reiterated a pledge that his government would start at the earliest possible moment to negotiate with the Soviet government for complete withdrawal of Russian soldiers from Hungary.

Missouri Deer Hunters Open 5-Day Season

First Reports Show Many Early Kills; Weather Is Help

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Missouri deer hunters opened their five-day gun season under overcast skies today and first reports showed many early kills.

Field agents of the State Conservation Commission said the opening day concentration of hunters was heavy. Warm, humid and windy weather kept the deer on the move and the outlook for first day success was regarded as good.

Perhaps the first kill came just two minutes after the season opened at 6:30 a.m. Forrest Land of Neosho, Mo., bagged a doe. While he and his hunting companion, Bill Lentz of Neosho, were bleeding the animal, another doe appeared. Lentz killed it.

One of the early kills reported came from Franklin County where 18-year-old Elmer Menremeyer of Leslie, Mo., downed a buck five minutes after the season opened. A Steelville woman also got her deer in the first five minutes. Jacqueline Younger shot a four-pointer near Berryman in Crawford County.

A fine trophy, a 10-point buck, was shot by Bill Wilson of Rothville at 7 a.m. in Linn County and at the same time Everett Sanders of Van Buren got a five-pointer in Carter County.

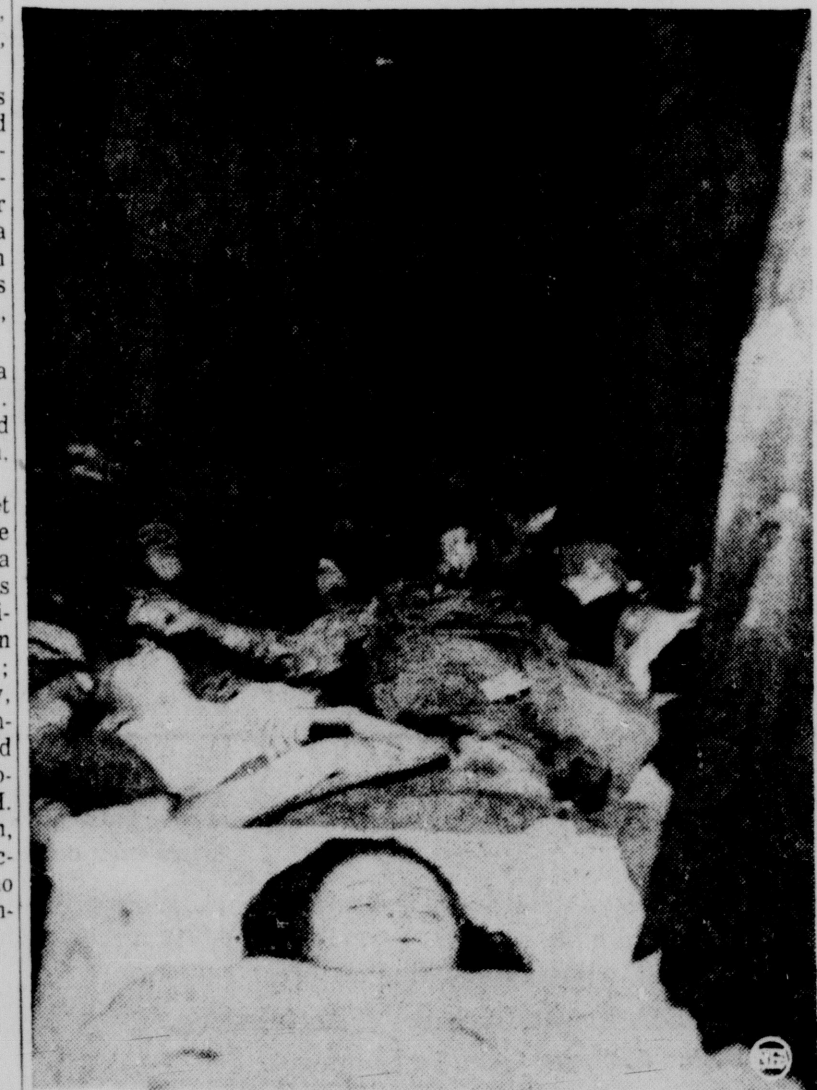

It was the sixth deer in the last seven seasons for Sanders.

The first 10 minutes of hunting also brought a 10-point, 200-pound buck under the guns of Dickie Humphreys and T. A. Cox of Galt, Mo., 10 miles south of their hometown.

Twelve deer were killed in the first few hours in Livingston County, where a big influx of hunters is expected.

Commission spokesmen have predicted heavy hunting pressure this year in counties north of the Missouri River where the animals grow larger than in the rocky hills of the Ozarks.

France, Britain Will Occupy Suez If Israeli-Egyptian Fight Continues

US Demands UN Give Order To Withdraw

Proposal Is Made At Emergency Meet Of Security Group

Bulletin

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Russia and the United States joined today in demanding that the immediate withdrawal of Israeli forces from Egyptian territory.

At the same time, Russia called on the Council to warn Britain and France against any military intervention in the Israeli-Egyptian conflict.

Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev read a news dispatch from London saying Britain and France had agreed their forces would occupy key positions in the Suez Canal area unless Israel and Egypt stop fighting within 12 hours.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States called on the U.N. Security Council today to order Israeli troops to withdraw immediately from Egyptian territory.

U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. made his demand at an emergency meeting of the 11-Nation Council summoned hastily during the night after Israeli troops moved deep into Egypt.

Lodge told the Council the United States would present a formal proposal at another meeting of the Council this afternoon calling for an immediate end of the hostilities and withdrawal of the Israeli forces.

He appealed to all members of the Council to refrain from giving Israel any assistance or from taking "advantage of the situation for any selfish interest."

"Failure of the Council to react at this time," Lodge said, "would be a clear avoidance of its responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security."

Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld told the Council that Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, U. N. truce chief in Palestine, had called on both Egypt and Israel for an immediate cease-fire. So far, he said, he had no information as to whether either side had replied.

In another development, Jordan formally urged the Council to end the fighting. At the same time, Jordan warned that it would go to the aid of Egypt in fulfillment of its treaty obligations.

The United States, which requested the council meeting, was reported considering asking U.N. members to take major economic and diplomatic reprisals against the Israelis.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles asked France and Britain to join America in seeking council action. The Western Big Three under a 1950 declaration are joint guarantors of the Arab-Israeli demarcation lines.

Send Merchant Ships To Pick Up Civilians

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department announced today it is trying to divert several merchant ships in the Middle East to ports where war-threatened American citizens can be picked up.

Press officer Lincoln White said evacuation is proceeding on a basis of women and children first as rapidly as transportation facilities will permit.

Says Teacher Used Position In Politics

Wants Professor To Be Dismissed From State College

ADRIAN, Mo. (AP)—State Sen. Vincent Baker (R) of Kansas City last night charged that a philosophy professor at Northeast Mo. State Teachers college, Kirksville, has used his teaching position to interpret partisan political views.

Baker, the GOP nominee for state attorney general, censured Dr. Earl C. Cunningham during a party rally here.

He said Dr. Cunningham expounded his views at the NAACP convention in St. Joseph Sunday. Baker declared "There is no doubt in my mind that he is campaigning for the Democrats. He was introduced to the group as a professor from Kirksville."

"I feel that the activities of Dr. Cunningham should call for his immediate dismissal, and he should not be allowed to teach in any state supported institution."

The legislator asserted that teachers should keep in mind that independents, Republicans and Democrats pay their salaries. He said it was a serious insult to the people if instructors use their position to "advance any political party."

In Kirksville, Dr. Cunningham declared he did not talk at St. Joseph as a representative of the Kirksville school, but he said, institution officials were aware he was going to make the speech.

"As a citizen I never forewent my rights to take sides in a political issue," Dr. Cunningham said. "If he (Baker) would challenge my right to say that, we would challenge the right of some 27,000 or 28,000 teachers in Missouri to offer a political opinion."

"Teachers still are citizens. I consider myself both a teacher and a citizen, and if there are issues on civil rights and abuses in government, and if there are places that need changes, I feel it is not only my right but my duty as a citizen to express my views."

The educator termed Baker's position highly indefensible. Baker said young people should not be subjected to one sided lectures in class by "professor-politicians."

"If this continued and our young people receive indoctrination instead, there should be a reappraisal of the appropriation policies of the legislature," he said.

Clouds Drop Small Amounts of Moisture

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Stingy rain clouds dropped small amounts of moisture on parts of Missouri today.

The Weather Bureau said the clouds will be more generous in the north and west portions this afternoon and expand their thunderstorm activity over the state tonight.

Occasional thundershowers were forecast for the southeast tomorrow.

Carthage reported .12 of an inch of precipitation this morning and the slow, steady rain was still falling. Other points along the western side of the state also received light rainfall.

In the 24 hours ended at 6 a. m. today, St. Joseph got .07, Grandview .06, Kirksville .05, Joplin and Butler .02 and Kansas City .01.

Ike Cancels Campaign Trip to 3 Cities

Sends Identical Messages, Other Dates Uncertain

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today canceled his scheduled campaign trip to Dallas, Oklahoma City and Memphis tomorrow because of the Middle East crisis.

Eisenhower sent identical messages to supporters who had arranged for his speeches in these states which supported him in 1952. The message said:

"The turn of events yesterday leaves me no option—in the interests of working for peace—but to remain at the White House Wednesday to deal with the situation developing in the Middle East."

He said it was "with exceeding regret" that he canceled the talks.

Press secretary James Hagerly, who announced the decision, said he did not know whether Eisenhower would be able to reschedule the visits before election day.

Also uncertain at the moment, Hagerly said, is whether Eisenhower will be able to keep his date in Philadelphia Thursday evening for a major address to be broadcast by radio and television (8:30 p.m. CST.)

It appeared this would be easier to fit into the suddenly disrupted campaign schedule, but Hagerly said "everything will be decided on a day-to-day basis."

Eisenhower got the news of the Israeli attack yesterday at the airport in Jacksonville, Fla., just after a campaign speech.

In that address he said America must remain militarily strong and at the same time must "give to our pursuit of peace our entire dedication." He alluded to efforts in Poland and Hungary to throw off Soviet domination, and added:

"At this particular stage of the world's history, where we see a once-proud people being trampled down by marching regiments, this is no time to stop the draft—this is no time to stop perfecting our weapons."

Russian Tanks Take Positions Around Berlin in Alert

BERLIN (AP)—Russian tanks reportedly took up positions around Berlin today in a giant exercise alert aimed at forestalling any Hungary-style anti-Communist uprising.

Western sources said the Russians apparently launched their warning maneuvers in coordination with a massive security alert order by the nervous East German Communist regime.

An estimated 270,000 East German soldiers and police have been on an emergency alert since the eruption of the Polish crisis.

Thinks Last Week Crucial--

Adlai Stevenson Makes Last Bid for the Big City Vote

By JOSEPH DEAR

With The Stevenson Campaign—Oct. 30—The Democratic candidate today touches base at Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Camden in a last chance bid for the big city vote.

Stevenson's attack in this last week of his campaign is directed at the city vote, which once was the exclusive property of the Democrats.

New York, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and Minneapolis all are on his schedule. Smashing turnouts in the cities could turn the trick for him.

But his campaigning problem is complicated by the flaring developments in Hungary and the Middle East. The temptation to exploit crisis to the advantage of his party is practically irresistible.

The question is how without sacrificing integrity and endangering the nation.

For example, consider the situation brought about by the Israeli attack on Egypt with respect to the temptation it must present to a politician on the make: United States, Britain, and France in 1950 promised the nations of the Middle East protection from an aggressor. We have pledged ourselves to act within or without the framework of the United Nations. Thus, if Israel has in fact invaded Egypt, and continues ag-

Anti-Aircraft Fire Heard Over Cairo

Alert Leaders Of Congress For Meeting

Messages Are Sent To Six To Be Ready On Quick Notice

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration was reported today to have alerted congressional leaders for possible emergency conference at the White House on the Middle East fighting.

A high official said word was sent this morning to the following leaders:

House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), Senate Democratic Leader Johnson of Texas, Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California, and House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts. Also to Sen. George (D-Ga.) and Rep. Richards (D-SC), chairman of the Senate and House foreign policy committees.

The word passed to the six men was that they should be prepared to fly to the capital on quick notice for possible talks with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

All leaders notified were reported to have expressed complete readiness to do so. George is already in Washington.

The move by the administration seemed mainly precautionary because top officials shortly before noon were reported largely in the dark about the actual developments in the Middle East areas.

The report of the standby alert to the congressional leaders came shortly after a 75-minute conference President Eisenhower had at the White House with Dulles, Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. and Herman Phleger, legal adviser to the State Department.

Eisenhower had a meeting last night of military, diplomatic and intelligence agency officials. The White House announced afterward that the United States would stand by a 1950 pledge with Britain and France to aid any victim of aggression in the area.

Suez Traffic Normal

ISMAILIA, Egypt (AP)—Egypt's Suez Canal Authority said navigation through the strategic waterway was normal today.

Mahmoud Younis, deputy director of the authority, in a telephone interview denied reports published abroad that canal traffic was obstructed by the Israeli military move into the neighboring Sinai Peninsula.

gressive action, the United States might have to dispatch troops to shore up the Egyptian government. We might be honor-bound to do that even if the United Nations refuses to act.

Obviously, the candidate who might be President must think before commenting positively on a situation as explosive as this. Obviously, too, campaigning was less burdensome in the yesterdays when a political outrage reflected on its author, and did not morally commit the most powerful nation in the world to a particular policy.

In Boston yesterday it was mostly old-style politics. Adlai, his sons, Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, and Adlai, Jr.'s wife Nancy, all got together for coffee at the local NBC television studio. The consensus was that the show hadn't been over-rehearsed.

The candidate then led a motorcade that crawled through downtown Boston. The noonday crowds were large. He talked to a luncheon gathering of state Democrats. His grandfather, he said, had been through Boston 64 years ago as the vice-presidential candidate.

After lunch, Stevenson told Democratic state chairmen, over a conference phone hookup, that this election is like 1948.

"It's going to be decided in the last week."

He urged them to their duty of getting out the vote.

Cease-Fire Must Occur In 12 Hours

Forces Clash Deep In Sinai Peninsula; Egypt Claims Mopup

Bulletin

CAIRO (AP)—An Egyptian army communique tonight claimed it had "annihilated" Israeli troops west of El Themed, Sinai desert post 30 miles inside the Egyptian frontier. The communique added: "Mopping up operations against enemy troops in the rest of the battle areas is continuing."

CAIRO (AP)—Egypt and Israel received a stern warning from Britain and France today to cease fighting in the Sinai Peninsula. The Western Powers threatened to occupy key positions in the Suez Canal zone unless there is a cease-fire within 12 hours.

The announcement came as Egyptian and Israeli forces were clashing deep within the Sinai Peninsula, which Israel invaded yesterday.

Prime Minister Eden said Britain and France have asked both sides to keep their forces 10 miles away from the canal.

At the same time, the United States asked the U.N. Security Council to order Israel to withdraw immediately from Egyptian territory.

Egyptian President Nasser was reported to have ordered a general mobilization as the fighting looked more and more like war. Israel had gone on a war footing over the weekend.

The Syrians also were reported by the Damascus newspapers to have ordered a state of general mobilization. Civilian buses and trucks were put at military disposal. Anti-aircraft guns were erected in the Syrian capital, and civil defense exercises were ordered there and in Aleppo.

Military spokesmen at Tel Aviv announced the capture of the Egyptian position of Qusaima, about 10 miles inside the Egyptian border and about 15 miles south west of the El Ajja demilitarized border area.

This action indicated the Israelis had struck at points scattered over a 70-mile front in their invasion of Egypt yesterday.

Earlier, a two-pronged attack from Kuntilla and the head of the Gulf of Oaqaba, far to the south, had been reported without confirmation to have driven almost across the peninsula to within 18½ miles of the Suez Canal.

A communique here said Egypt's counterattack "stopped completely" the Israeli advance. Military sources in Tel Aviv placed the Israeli columns at 30 to 60 miles from the canal.

A Cairo communique said the Egyptian air force shot down two Israeli aircraft, destroyed 12 Israeli armored cars and straddled Israeli troops.

These attacks were said to have taken place at El Themed, 30 miles inside Egypt from the Kuntilla jumpoff point, and against Israeli troops "before the Egyptian position at Qusaima."

The communique claimed Egyptians were engaged in "mopping up operations in the Sinai Peninsula."

Tel Aviv military spokesmen announced that the Israeli air force also had gone into action and had attacked Egyptian convoys.

Earlier, neutral diplomats in Israel had expressed the fear that if the fighting got into the air it would tip the balance toward all-out war. The Egyptian air force lately has been reinforced by the arrival of Soviet jet fighters and bombers. The Israeli air force has French jets.

Israel's 1,800,000 population faced a blackout tonight.

It was the Cairo newspaper Al Messaa which reported Nasser had ordered general mobilization. There was no government confirmation.

Chief Calls For Orderly Hallowe'en

Asks Same Conduct As In Past Years; To Have 20 Extras

Hallowe'en Wednesday night should be orderly in celebration, as it has been in the past two years, according to Chief of Police Edgar Neighbors, who announced the Police Department plans for the night. There will be more than 20 extra police to assist the regular night shift in patrolling the city.

"However," Chief Neighbors said, "actually I don't believe we would have to add any more police to the regulars if the children, and adults, too, conduct themselves as they have in the past two Hallowe'en nights. But as a precaution we have added the officers to work from 6 p.m. to 2 a.m."

"Those who did participate in Hallowe'en celebration in 1954 and 1955, for the most part, conducted themselves as ladies and gentlemen. They had their fun trick or treating, but they did little destruction of property."

"I want to impress on the bigger boys and girls not to tantalize the youngsters who are out trick-or-treating. The little children must have their fun and they will be protected from any of the 'big about, taking away from the little ones their 'loot', Neighbors said.

Members of the Pettis County Post No. 16 American Legion Auxiliary Police will be working with the regular officers. There will be more than 15 private cars patrolling the city, along with the regular police cars.

Officers have been instructed to break up any roaming gangs. If the boys and girls refuse to heed to the warnings of the police, they will be picked up and taken to police headquarters. If juveniles, they will be turned over to Cecil Glenn, juvenile officer, and if older locked up in the city jail and charges will be filed against them.

Eliminating of destruction of property by Hallowe'en pranksters is the big aim of the city. If property is damaged or destroyed and the person or persons apprehended, proper action will be taken against them and they are liable to suit by the parties whose property has been damaged.

Closing his interview, Chief Neighbors remarked, "Let's all have good clean fun and really enjoy ourselves like the last two seasons."

Proper Signals

Whether it rained or not, at least it looked like it would, and that was a big step in the right direction.

Mostly cloudy with showers and thundershowers and colder tonight; partly cloudy and colder Wednesday; low tonight in mid-40s; high Wednesday upper 60s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 62, 69 at 1 p.m. and 70 at 2 p.m. Low Monday night 62.

The temperature one year ago today, high 54, low 35; two years ago, high 47, low 29, with the first snow flurry of the season, at 11:30 p.m.; and three years ago, high 69, low 45.

Nixon to End Campaigning In California

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Vice President Nixon winds up his campaigning in California today after asserting that re-election of President Eisenhower is the best way to encourage anti-Russian moves in satellite countries.

Nixon, speaking at Occidental College last night, said that "for the first time the Iron Curtain shows real evidence of cracking," then declared that the Eisenhower administration has steadfastly pushed liberation of the satellites.

However, he made no direct claim that administration policies in this field caused the riots in Poland and Hungary.

The vice president kept in close touch with the other dramatic foreign developments, conferring half an hour last night by phone with Secretary of State Dulles on the Israeli-Egyptian crisis.

But an aide said that nothing had arisen so far to alter the crowded Nixon campaign schedule for the balance of this week.

Nixon is to fly from Long Beach to San Diego in the late afternoon and make the major speech of his California tour tonight over a statewide television network.

Nixon used the occasion last night for the most extended treatment he has given so far to the Polish and Hungarian riots.

He praised Eisenhower as a "symbol of peace and freedom" whose "world stature and prestige is such that he will be able to mobilize the great moral force of free men everywhere and of those behind the Iron Curtain who want to be free."

Miss Towne and Webb were married Jan. 11, 1955, in Chicago. Thirteen months earlier he was divorced by singer-actress Julie London, mother of his daughters Stacy, 6, and Lisa, 4.

Soviet Official Says Bulganin Didn't Mean To Interfere in US

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov says Premier Bulganin didn't mean to interfere in the U. S. election with his letter to President Eisenhower suggesting a ban on H-bomb tests.

Shepilov told Western correspondents at a reception:

"We did not connect it with the American election. The message raised the question of banning nuclear explosions. I believe that Mr. Bulganin did not think of either the donkey or the elephant."

Adlai Stevenson had been advocating suspension of H-bomb tests when the Bulganin letter arrived 10 days ago. Eisenhower, who opposes ending the tests until an over-all disarmament accord is reached, fired back an answer to Bulganin accusing him of "interference in internal affairs of the United States."

Anyway, Shepilov said, what's said in Russia should not affect the voting in the United States.

Navy Ready to Build Mammoth Carrier With 8 Atom Engines

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas says the Navy is ready to build a mammoth 85,000-ton aircraft carrier propelled by eight atomic engines. It would be the world's biggest ship.

The design of the giant warship is complete, Thomas said, and construction will start in the fiscal year beginning July 1 if Congress votes the funds to be asked by the administration.

In a speech at the Navy League last night, Thomas said the supercarrier's atomic power plant would give it a speed of about 33 knots.

Says Wives Burn More Energy Than Husbands

CINCINNATI (AP)—Housewives burn up more energy than most husbands do on their jobs, a Cleveland heart specialist says.

Dr. Herman K. Hellerstein of Western Reserve University's

School of Medicine said the average housewife burns from three to five calories of energy per minute.

This, he said, is more than is burned up by men on most jobs, except such occupations as "foundry workers, farmers, jobs entailing manhandling of materials and dock workers."

The delicious flavor difference in Folger's is Mountain Grown Coffee!

You taste it in every steaming cup—the unusually rich, tangy flavor of nature's choicest coffee. For that's what Folger's is... a unique and individual blend of naturally more flavorful Mountain-Grown coffees!

Experts agree that these rare mountain coffees, grown in remote regions where there is an abundance of fertile volcanic soil, warm tropic rain, and year-round sunlight, have the most satisfying tang and flavor of any coffee known today.

And you will agree that the rewarding flavor and fragrance you discover in Folger's is the finest you have ever enjoyed. Distinctively rich. Unusually tangy. Unmistakably Folger's—the Mountain-Grown coffee!

So much richer in flavor that you are urged to use 1/4 less than with lesser flavored brands.

REGULAR, DRIP AND FINE GRINDS—ONE AND TWO POUND CANS

Folger's Coffee... It's Mountain-Grown!

United Church Women Honor A Civic Day

The United Church Women of Sedalia will sponsor World Community Day observance, Friday, Nov. 2, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Wesley Methodist Church, Broadway and Carr. The theme will be: "Human Rights."

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Walter will show pictures taken during his recent trip to Russia.

Mrs. Thomas Huffine, World Mission chairman, will conduct a workshop period using the scripture: "For the sake of my brethren, my kinsman."

A choir, led by Mrs. Henry Salver, accompanied by Mrs. Mae Moser, will augment the service. "Parcels of Peace," to be sent to India, Pakistan, Korea, Japan, Greece, Italy, Germany, will be collected and brought to the church. Men's clothing, blankets and yardage of denim are especially needed.

Money offering to support refugee victims of war, supply Christian hospitals with medicine, surgical dressings and much needed equipment. It will be used, also, to maintain an observer at United Nations.

World Community Day is a spiritual undertaking through which ten million church women dedicate themselves to building life, friendship and lasting peace. The day will be observed in more than 2,000 communities in the United States alone. It is sponsored by the United Church Women, a department of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

As church women, they believe that prayer, study and action are one; that every Christian woman is essential to the ultimate attainment of these objectives. The world is sorely troubled as the U.C.W. send out a challenge to church women everywhere that they be engaged in this progressive program as a bulwark against those forces which are threatening to destroy the human rights of the individual.

Kefauver Blames
GOP Policies
For Middle East

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Sen. Estes
Kefauver says that Israel's military thrust into Egypt "knocks into a cocked hat the peaceful slogan of the Republican campaign."

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate, commenting last night on the Middle East crisis, also said that what he called "zigzag policies" of Secretary of State Dulles contributed "to the conditions from which the present conflict results."

Meanwhile, Kefauver carried his campaign into Illinois, still hammering on the theme that H-bomb tests should be suspended as soon as possible and that the Eisenhower administration, as he puts it, is riskily ignoring possible radiation danger to future generations.

Kefauver got a boisterous, good-natured greeting from University of Illinois students when his Main-streeter campaign plane landed after midnight.

The majority of the welcoming party wore paper coonskin caps, one of which was presented to the candidate, and held up pro-Stevenson signs. Kefauver and Sen.
Douglas (D-Ill.), who also was in the welcoming party, exchanged wiscracks with the students while a leather-junged minority group chanted "We like Ike."

His talk at the university today is the first political speech, campaign aides said, to be permitted on the campus since 1890. Regulations against political appearances recently were relaxed to allow presidential and vice-presidential candidates to appear.

USDA Notes Little
Evidence of Markup
In Grain Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has written an Oklahoma congressman that it has seen "very little evidence" of local dealers making excessive markups in price in connection with the emergency feed grain program.

But it promptly investigates every specific report of that nature and takes prompt remedial action when it is indicated, said Harry
W. Frazee, assistant to the director of Agricultural Credit Services.

With the help of state agriculture department drought committees, Frazee wrote Rep. Wickersham (D-Okla.), "we are constantly seeking ways to keep prices in line."

Wickersham had referred to the department a letter from Headrick, Okla., contending there had been an increase in the cost of feed in that area and emphasizing the need of farmers for additional emergency drought assistance.

Adlai Stevenson on Eisenhower's Golf

Which is fraught with more danger to the American people, the radioactive fallout hazards of H-bomb explosions or the verbal fall-out from Adlai Stevenson's bombast during the last hours of his campaign of desperation in which he continues an attempt to make President Eisenhower's recreation a major issue?

Adlai is wallowing around in a radioactive mud puddle splattering the bystanders who expect to vote next Tuesday. His arguments are not based on logic and reason but rather on blatant emotion on subjects all the way from H-bombs and the draft to the manner in which a president takes his exercise. He keeps harping on the subject of golf as though it were a disease.

What about this subject—golf? We read some comment in the Los Angeles Herald-Express about golf in which the writer suggested that two subjects Adlai Stevenson ought to avoid in his own interest was the one on Ike's health because Adlai does not know who will outlive whom; the other is Ike's golf.

"Some men get their exercise one way and some another.

"We do not know Adlai's way, but we hope, whatever it is, that it does him some good.

"Ike gets his exercise on the golf course,

"Theodore Roosevelt got his riding a horse.

"Franklin D. Roosevelt was limited to swimming.

"Herbert Hoover tossed the medicine ball.

"Harry Truman takes the long morning walk.

"This is still a free country and a man can exercise where and how he chooses.

"Some do it by bending the elbow correctly and often. (Or playing bridge and poker.)

"But what is Adlai Stevenson's form of exercise? Does he play baseball or football or billiards or does he crack puns as a squirrel cracks nuts?

"Maybe he takes no exercise, which is his privilege.

"Maybe puttering around and being a gentleman farmer is enough for him.

"A president's capacity and ability and usefulness are measured by his achievements, not by the number of hours he spends at his desk.

"If the reader believes that Ike has given the country a competent administration, surely it makes little difference whether he did it at a desk, on the golf course, or on his farm.

"The place does not matter; only the achievements count."

That's the way any reasonable man would look at it, too. An executive who overwhelms himself with attentions to minor details cannot be an efficient administrator when it comes to making decisions on important policies.

An executive's efficient performance comes by way of an innate capacity to delegate authority to others exactly in the manner that President Eisenhower does it. The best measure of the ability of a top executive is how well the work gets done rather than the amount of time he spends doing detail work himself, which Stevenson thinks Ike should do.

Adlai Stevenson apparently lacks an understanding of the techniques of executive control. He has already demonstrated his own incapacity in this respect during his campaign tours of the country by not fully entrusting details of this project to his own qualified staff members.

Nevertheless Stevenson rants on that at several critical periods in the last few years, President Eisenhower has been playing golf, hunting quail or otherwise vacationing. He never refers to Truman's Key West vacations or the hours F.D.R. spent with his stamp collection.

Insinuating that President Eisenhower has "abdicated responsibility" is intemperate prattle. Ike is a man of integrity, devoted to public service and respected by his fellow citizens.

Whoever put Adlai Stevenson in a state of hypnosis and sent him across the country dropping verbal H-bombs ought to snap their fingers and bring him out of his trance before truth is slain.

The late Samuel G. Blythe was among the most astute writers on politics and public affairs the country has produced. Once he said, "It's always a great mistake to play the great American people for boobs."

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Pearson Tells Truth About Himself

WASHINGTON.—Now that it's spread out in cold type in the Saturday Evening Post with pictures, headlines, and all the trimmings, I'm beginning to get just a twinge of cold feet about those "Confessions" of Drew Pearson.

Of course I've peeked into the lives of a good many people. Allegedly I've crouched under Cabinet tables. I've nagged and cajoled and criticized. I've upbraided and scolded all sorts, from bureaucrats to brass hats. But turning the tables and trying to do the same thing to yourself is a little difficult.

In the first place, it's hard to tell the truth about yourself. Because almost every man considers himself a greater hero than he is. He can never put himself on quite the same lowly pedestal as the rest of humanity. He has to have that spark of conceit or pride that keeps him plugging along toward bigger and better things.

So when you strip yourself down and try to write about yourself as others see you and try conscientiously to tell the truth about all your own mistakes and foibles, well—frankly it's pride-shattering.

For instance, when I sat down and tried to figure out whether Harry Truman was justified in calling me an "SOB," I had to admit in my heart that maybe he was. I don't think he was justified on the particular occasion that evoked his blast—General Harry Vaughan and his medal from Dictator Peron. But there were plenty of other times when Harry was probably right.

Anyway, when I tried to spell all these things out in black and white I found it was a much tougher job than I had ever dreamed. And now that the first issue is on the newsstands I'm beginning to get a little jittery and wonder whether it was such a good idea after all. I predict my critics will get a kick out of it. And my friends—well, maybe they won't read—or will be tolerant if they do.

Acheson Threatened Jail

One revelation I make in these Saturday Evening Post confessions is how Justice Felix Frankfurter of the Supreme Court asked Dean Acheson, then Secretary of State, to have me prosecuted for contempt of court after I had reported that Chief Justice Fred Vinson had had a conversation with President Truman about John L. Lewis' coal strike.

It never occurred to me that there was anything wrong about the President and the Chief Justice discussing a coal strike that endangered the national economy. But since the Executive and the Supreme Court are separated under the Constitution and since an injunction against Lewis was then before the Court, it seems I offended at least one member of the court, namely Frankfurter.

At any rate, Dean Acheson did propose to Attorney General Tom Clark at a cabinet meeting that I be prosecuted. Clark didn't take his advice, and somehow or other I am still out of jail—though I never can tell for how long. However, what I am getting at is that I now plan to write something about Dean Acheson.

(Drew Pearson today revealed that he was driven almost to suicide by those who blamed him for the death of James Forrestal.

In the current — November 3 — issue of The Saturday Evening Post, the columnist says that this "greatest depression" occurred when Forrestal, after resigning as Secretary of Defense, threw himself out of the Bethesda Naval Hospital window.

"I won't dwell on the tragedy, except to say that after it happened there were awful moments when I woke up in the night fighting an almost paralyzing urge to join Forrestal," Pearson writes.

"It was the only time in my life that I have ever felt that urge, and I pray it will never happen again."

Revenge On Acheson

Dean got a lot of brickbats thrown at him when he was secretary of state, among other things for giving foreign aid to Tito. He was also criticized for not trying to operate on the Chinese mainland to undercut Red China and for not betting all our diplomatic chips on Chiang Kai-shek.

His theory was that if we quit waving the big stick at China it would do a Tito and drift around to independence from Moscow. He also argued that the satellite countries of Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia would eventually divorce themselves from Moscow because these countries basically didn't like Russian rule and had little in common with the Russians.

His was the "containment" policy, evolved by George Kennan, the Russian expert whose resignation Dulles accepted. Dulles has torn that policy to pieces publicly, but privately he has followed it. On September 18, 1952 when he was campaigning for Ike, Dulles made a rip-snorting speech to the Polish-Americans in Buffalo promising to intervene actively, stir up revolt and everything else behind the Iron Curtain.

Dulles Follows Acheson

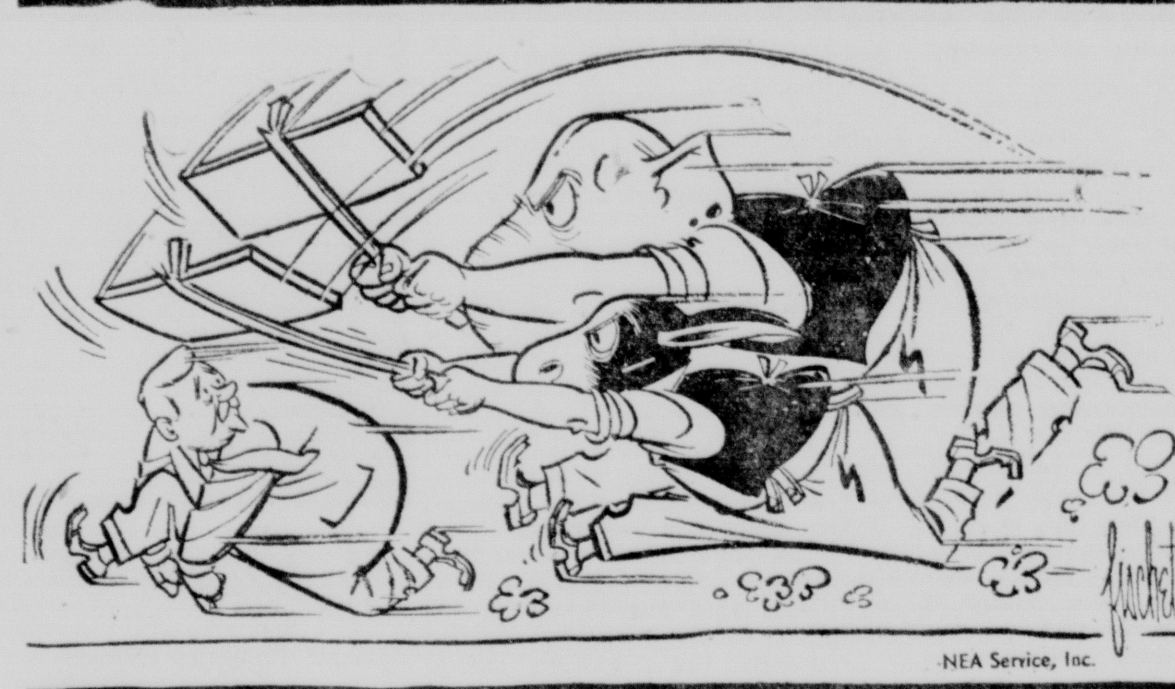

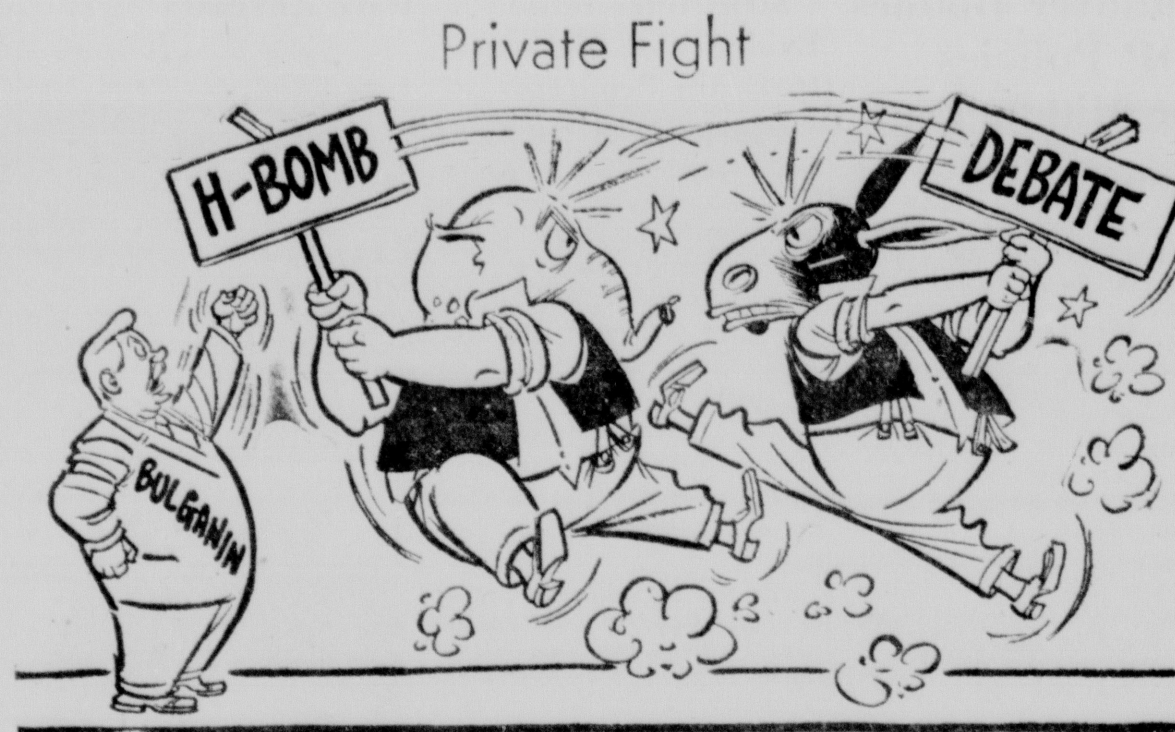

But once he got in office he did just the opposite, he followed the Acheson containment policy. I know, because I dealt with the State Department under both to get more launching bases for freedom balloons across the Iron Curtain.

Dulles also carried out the Acheson policy of aiding Tito. So did Eisenhower and Harold Stassen. And when the storm broke in Congress last summer with speeches demanding that aid to Tito be cut off completely and finally, it was the Democratic senators who supported Eisenhower to give him the right to continue aid. The majority of Republican senators voted not only against Tito but against their own President.

That policy has now richly paid off.

For it was the example of a Tito able to defy Moscow which set the pattern now being followed in Poland, Hungary, and probably soon in Czechoslovakia.

Therefore, I as one who sometimes criticized Acheson and who have no reason to feel grateful for his attempt to prosecute me, would like to recall that it was Acheson who set this wise but unipolar policy — and stuck to it despite the brickbats.

The World Today--

Did Israelis Think They Could Succeed?

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON.—The Israeli thrust into Egypt raises the question: Did the Israelis have a pretty good idea they could get away with it?

There are some things to watch for; how far the United States is willing to go to stop this military move; and whether Britain and France are willing to join the United States in stopping it.

President Eisenhower has built his whole campaign around peace. The Israelis made their attack one week before the U.S. election.

Did they figure Eisenhower would hesitate to plunge the United States into Middle East conflict? The Israeli's timing looks more than coincidental. It's also a time when Russia has its hands full with Eastern European riots.

In 1950 the United States, Britain and France agreed they would act, either inside or outside the United Nations, to stop any aggression in the Middle East. Last night the White House said this country would honor its 1950 pledge.

It also said that today the United States would lay the case before the U.N. But the White House didn't say what this country would do about its pledge if the U.N. did not act, or if Britain or France should balk.

Debate in the U.N. could well last more than a week, or until after next Tuesday's elections.

If the U.N. didn't act and this country decided to move into the Middle East, would Britain and France join in the undertaking?

Both Britain and France were burned up at Secretary of State Dulles for urging caution instead of force after Egypt's President Nasser seized the Suez Canal last July.

Britain had effective control of that canal — with troops stationed there — until 1954. It agreed then to withdraw its troops, but with

Adolescence Is Gradual Process In Growing Up

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

A mother writes: "I have a 13-year-old daughter who will soon grow into womanhood, and I want to explain some things to her before her monthly periods start. What would you suggest?"

Mothers should prepare themselves earlier than this and should talk with their daughters at about 11 or 12; if they do not, there is a strong likelihood their girls will get strange and inaccurate notions from companions.

The most remarkable change of adolescence is, of course, the onset of menstruation. A young girl should understand what is involved before this event occurs. It sometimes starts at 12 and sometimes is delayed until two or three years later. The mother—or if she feels unable to do so, a physician—should explain this phenomenon.

It is, of course, part of the growing-up process, and represents the preparation of the womb to receive an egg which later grows into a human being. When the egg is not fertilized, the womb sheds some of its superficial layers, thus resulting in the periodic menstruation.

All this is perfectly normal, and begins in millions of girls each year. The other changes of adolescence, such as enlargement of the breasts, are similarly related to the later womanly functions of child bearing and child rearing.

One point which should be made the provision that it would have the right to reoccupy the canal zone in case the waterway or Egypt was attacked.

If the British now reoccupied the area, they could argue they were merely defending the canal against the Israelis under their 1954 agreement. What would the Israelis do then, fight the British? It seems unlikely.

The Israeli move into Egypt comes at a convenient time for the French, who are plagued by troubles with the Arabs in North Africa.

An Israeli attack on the Arabs anywhere in the Middle East would take some of the heat off the French. Would the French then go along if the United States decided to move into the Middle East?

Odd and Ends By News Staff

IT MUST HAVE been quite a party because two of the men mistook the dumbwaiter for something else—just what is a mystery. Anyway, they climbed in it, their weight took it down, and there they were lodged in between floors and hanging onto a rope when someone heard them call. The man who heard them couldn't pull them up by himself so he went for help.

The help came back with him and they had a real struggle to get the two back up. In the meantime, the food line started and the good Samaritan just about missed out on the food; in fact he would have if his wife hadn't had the feeling he might not get back in time and took an extra sandwich for him.

Now we know why they call one of those things a dumbwaiter—that one was there just waiting for some of the dumb to come along.—H.L.

Professions Drawn Into The Political Campaign

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON.—If your doctor, lawyer or merchant tries to sell you a little political propaganda along with his regular services, you can be fairly certain it's part of an organized campaign.

For this year the professions as well as the labor unions are being recruited to get out the vote.

House-to-house calls, telephone solicitations and letter - writing campaigns are being conducted at an unprecedented rate.

The Republicans have organized Lawyers Committees as adjuncts to their Eisenhower-Nixon Clubs. Attorneys are asked for contributions of from $10 to $100 or more.

Doctors, dentists, osteopaths, chiropractors, veterinarians and druggists are being dragged in on the health issue. They are being asked not only to give money but to work.

They are being asked to have political literature available in their offices and on their counters. They are asked to take part in registration drives. And for Election Day, doctors and their wives are being asked to line up 25 of their friends with cars to take ill patients to the polls.

The Republicans got the jump on this campaign by forming a "Committee on the Healing Arts" last August. It is headed by Dr. Elmer Hess, former president of American Medical Assn. It operates from Republican national headquarters in Washington under a young ex-Naval doctor, William B. Walsh.

A series of letters has gone out to thousands of doctors on Republican national committee stationery.

After Democratic candidate Adlai Stevenson issued his health program paper and after ex-president Harry Truman again called for enactment of his health insurance plan, the GOP Committee on Healing Arts made another direct appeal to all doctors.

It called for "protection of the unfettered practice of medicine" by "the last of the self-employed" in a "free enterprise America."

Some of these letters naturally bounced back to Democratic headquarters with copies of hot replies from doctors who resented them.

But only then did the Democrats bestir themselves to organize their own "Committee of Physicians and Surgeons for Stevenson-Kefauver."

Dr. Paul Magnuson of Washington, former head of the Committee for the Nation's Health, was named chairman, but he later resigned.

Dr. Karl A. Meyer of Chicago, Dr. Benjamin Spock of Cleveland and Dr. Everts A. Graham of Chicago now head up the Democratic committee.

But they got such a late start they are working at a disadvantage.

Some of the letters they have received from their doctors are, however, pretty strong medicine. A copy of one, written as a reply to a letter from GOP's Dr. Hess by Dr. James K. Martins of Elva, Wisc., reads in part:

"I am a general practitioner in a community devoted to farming

Marilyn Has Jitters When Seeing Queen

LONDON (AP)—A nervous Marilyn Monroe was presented to Britain's Queen Elizabeth II last night and found the monarch a "very warm" person.

"She radiates a wonderful womanly essence and softness," said the actress.

The introduction came at the annual royal command film performance where members of the royal family met a group of international film stars.

"How do you like living in Windsor?" the Queen asked Marilyn.

The startled actress blinked, said "What?" then hastened to add, "I thought we lived at Englefield Green."

"Oh, we're neighbors," said Queen Elizabeth, explaining that Englefield Green, where the actress and her husband, playwright Arthur Miller, have rented a large manor, is near Windsor Castle.

The Queen and the film star, both 30, also chatted about the film Marilyn is making in England, "The Sleeping Prince."

Queen Elizabeth stopped to talk with each of the stars in the line. She was followed down the row of movie personalities by her sister Princess Margaret.

Marilyn's nervousness was shared by other members of the movie group. Said veteran Joan Crawford: "I've never been so scared in all my life. Anyone want to buy a stomach pump?"

Victor Mature reported he was so nervous he couldn't remember one thing the Queen said to him.

Man Finds Own Son In Truck Wreckage

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—W.W. Pettit always keeps his eyes open for motorists in trouble since the time five years ago when he was pinned in a wreck for nearly four hours.

So, when he saw tell-tale skid marks leading off a road in Colusa County he stopped to investigate. In an overturned pickup truck, 20 feet down an embankment, he found three men.

One of them was his own son, Jerry.

The three were dazed but not seriously hurt. Coming home from a hunting trip, they had gone off the road when blinded by another car's headlights.

Health Official Says Cold Vaccine Close

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—An official of the California State Health Department says science is close to control of the common cold.

Dr. Arthur C. Hollister Jr., chief of the Bureau of Acute Communicable Diseases, said the chief handicap to development of a cold vaccine is the many strains of virus involved in the cold.

"Many viruses appear in the laboratory when we start to take the common cold apart," Dr. Hollister told representatives of 150 southern California public health departments yesterday. "Where the polio vaccine had to deal with three strains, a cold vaccine may have to deal with as many as 10."

Baffin Island covers 197,000 square miles and is the largest of the Canadian Arctic islands.

The National Safety Council estimates that the annual financial loss to the nation from farm accidents averages about $275 per farm family.

THE MIGHTY CHRYSLER FOR 1957

Here's the glamorous,
low-priced 1957
Chrysler Windsor V-8

Announcing the most glamorous car in a generation!

You never looked or felt as good in anything before!

Other cars have changed models . . . this one changes motoring. Look at its rich, racy lines . . . at the long, low silhouette . . . at the dramatic upsweep of the rear fenders that plume back from the waist like the wake of a hydroplane. It's a streak of a car with the elegance of the boulevard and the spirit of the speedway.

Get into this car, drive it into traffic or out on the open highway and you enter a new domain of travel. In the 1957 Chrysler, with its new Torsion-Aire Ride, motion has a new "feel". And wait till you toe the throttle. A new Pushbutton TorqueFlite Transmission teams with a mighty airplane-type V-8 engine, developing up to 325 horsepower, to give you a new high-velocity getaway, matchless passing power when you need it.

Come in this week and visit our showrooms. See and drive the most completely new car of the year!

Torsion-Aire Ride pours the road under you!

Try Chrysler's new Torsion-Aire Ride and you'll think some of the laws of gravity, motion and inertia have been suspended in your favor. No more rock and roll. No more pitch when you stop. Chrysler's new torque rod suspension and lower center of gravity give you a brand new ground-skimming "feel" of the road. The wheels ride the contours . . . but you don't. The road just pours under you.

Lopez, Chisox Join Forces For One Year

CHICAGO (AP)—Al Lopez, ex-Cleveland manager who made a career of finishing second to the New York Yankees, and the perennial third-place Chicago White Sox, joined forces yesterday.

Lopez accepted a one-year contract offered by Vice President Chuck Comiskey to manage the White Sox in 1957. Lopez resigned as Cleveland manager Sept. 29 after guiding the Tribe to second place five times since 1951.

The Tribe won the pennant under Lopez in 1954 with an American League record of 111 victories. Lopez, one of baseball's "nice guy" managers, succeeds Marty Marion, who bowed out last week as manager of the White Sox.

Meanwhile, Cleveland boss Hank Greenberg went to Los Angeles to talk with Leo Durocher, former manager of the New York Giants. Durocher, who once said "Nice guys don't win pennants," has indicated he'll manage Cleveland if the price is right.

Lopez, 48, broke into baseball in 1925 and was a catcher with Brooklyn, Boston and Pittsburgh in the National League. In 1947, he played in 57 games with Cleveland. His major league lifetime batting average was .261.

He managed Indianapolis of the American Assn. to a pennant in 1948 and finished second in both 1949 and 1950. He then took over at Cleveland.

Westerns Improved On Television

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — Let's put it in the form of a question: Are Westerns improving on television? Not all Westerns, mind you. Just some Westerns. Specifically, let's look at the two hours of Westerns available on ABC-TV every other Tuesday evening. First there comes the hour-length new Cheyenne series followed by a half-hour of Wyatt Earp in his second season and topped off by Broken Arrow, a new weekly series.

Westerns normally just aren't this department's dish. But Cheyenne, starring Clint Walker, as visible on the screen last week, strikes us as excellent entertainment. It alternates with Confrontation, seen tonight.

The story, with its emphasis on notches above the old-fashioned bang-bang and whoop-de-doo. All supermen eventually become heroes — and that's the trouble with the heroes of too many Westerns.

But Cheyenne, as portrayed by Clint Walker, is more human. Yes, he's handy with a gun and good to a horse, but he simply doesn't know all the answers. He's fallible and fumbling and questioning; as a literary type, he's as old as a ballad character of the Middle Ages. He is the perfect counterpoint to the evil and chicanery of the American frontier.

Wyatt Earp, as a character, is more knowledgeable than Cheyenne. One might expect him to become rather a bore in his second season in the way that Gene Autry and Hopalong Cassidy have become bores to critical-minded adults; because they are infallible and know all the answers.

But Wyatt Earp continues to be a good show, better now than it was a year ago. Its quality is maintained by the only thing that can sustain any regular television series: good writing.

Broken Arrow also attempts the new Western emphasis on character, it is excellent in its purpose of treating the Indian seriously and presenting the Apache civilization as something more than a gang of renegades.

Unfortunately the purpose falters in execution. The problem appeared last week to one arm-chair viewer to be a matter of budget. Scenes were skimmed and there was an emphasis on interior sets when one wanted to see something of grandeur of the Southwest. Perhaps Broken Arrow is shot on location. Certainly it should be.

These programs indicate that the Western on television is improving.

Green Ridge School Has Successful Affair

The Green Ridge School and PTA Carnival held Oct. 26, was a very successful event with over $500 cleared from the various programs and concessions. The sum will be used toward a new piano for the school.

The sixth grade presented a style show, in which there were 15 entries, including all the school board members and all the men teachers of the school and a few other men. James Reed of near Green Ridge was awarded first prize. Jack Alfrey of the Manila community was awarded second prize.

Miss Jackie Kendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kendrick, Green Ridge, was crowned Queen of the Carnival. Her escort was Lloyd Atkins.

Buddy L. Cramer Has Equator Initiation

Buddy L. Cramer, seaman, USN, 401 East Howard, Sedalia, aboard the destroyer USS Ozbourn, of Destroyer Division 112, crossed the equator recently while enroute from Honolulu to Pago Pago.

Traditional Shellback ceremonies were held on the equator crossing. One of the oldest nautical traditions, the ceremonies are conducted as a vessel crosses the equator into the mythical realm of King Neptune—legendary ruler of the seven seas.

Uninitiated crew members are called "polywogs" and enter the hallowed ranks of Shellbacks only upon completing a colorful and traditional initiation ceremony.

The four destroyers of Destroyer Division 112 are completing the second leg of a 12,000-mile cruise before reporting for duty with the 7th Fleet in Far Eastern waters.

Adults Cause Most Trouble At Concerts

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — From a fellow who should know comes the proposition that rock 'n' roll is neither corrupting nor new. The source is Fats Domino, whose free-rolling, hard-bouncing records have sold in the millions. He has also made news by having riots at his concerts.

"But it wasn't the kids that did it," he said. "We've only had two incidents, and both were caused by adults who were drinking. One

Lonzo N. Simmons Finishes Training

Pvt. Lonzo N. Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Simmons, 1214 East 11th, Sedalia, completed recruit training recently at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The 12-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and the firing of all basic infantry weapons.

Upon completion of training, the new Marines are assigned to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for further infantry training, or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.

Robert Grishkat Is Promoted to Major

Robert Grishkat, son of Mrs. A. O. Grishkat, 701 South Engineer, and the late Mr. Grishkat, has been promoted to major in the Army. He is in the quartermaster corps, and was called into service with the Sedalia National Guards at the time it mobilized for World War II.

Major and Mrs. Grishkat, and son, Robbie, who have been visiting his mother for the past week, have returned to Fort Lee, Va., where he is stationed.

NEAR everything in the heart of Kansas City every room air conditioned the year around, with free radio and running ice water—all at no extra charge!

was in San Jose, where they packed too many people into the hall. The kids were okay, but a lot of the grownups were booing. Somebody threw a bottle on the floor and then some others did. Somebody called the cops.

"The same thing happened at the naval base in Newport, R. I. Somebody threw a bottle and the trouble started. The music had nothing to do with it.

"When we play to an audience of kids, they don't go wild. They just clap their hands to the beat and bounce a little and enjoy themselves."

He added that rock 'n' roll had gotten a bad name with adults because some entertainers employ dirty lyrics and suggestive movements. "I don't think they're doing it so much any more," he said. "I never would use dirty lyrics. And I don't use body movements either. I just play the piano or I sing and clap my hands."

Domino is 28 and built like his namesake, the late Fats Waller,

Jim S. Caton Leaves For Far East Tour

Marine Pfc. Jim S. Caton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Caton, Sedalia, is serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Saint Paul scheduled to leave Long Beach, Calif., Nov. 6 for a tour of duty in the Far East. The 17,000-ton warship, which will be the flagship of the 7th Fleet, will range the eastern coast of Asia until next summer when she will return to the U.S.

It is the sixth Far Eastern cruise for the Saint Paul since its commissioning in 1944.

Experts Develop New Idea in Housing For Growing Number of Older People

ORANGE GARDENS, FLORIDA "It's more than just a real estate venture . . ."

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

KISSIMEE, Fla. (NEA) — They've come up with something brand new in old people's homes. It's the result of work by a group of experts who have been studying problems of the growing population of elderly persons in the U.S.

Their ideas are embodied in a pilot housing development here which attempts to cater to every need of an older person, from helping to find employment to providing non-skid bath tubs.

Here are some of the features of these houses:

Extra-wide doors are for persons in wheel chairs or on crutches. For the same reason, and for persons with bad hearts, there are no stairs.

Low shelves and cupboards make it unnecessary to reach above the head. At the same time total storage space is two to three times that built into ordinary houses. Research shows that older people have accumulated many prized possessions which they like to keep handy in their homes.

Drapes, window curtains, shower curtains and all gadgets or devices which protrude are designed for grabbing to prevent or break a fall.

The shower curtain rod and hangers for the drapes, for example, are built to take a 500-pound weight.

Bathrooms are built relatively small so that a person need not walk to reach everything. Special treaders are installed in the tubs to prevent slipping.

The lavatory is high to eliminate the need to stoop. Electric wall plugs are placed high for the same reason.

"Orange Gardens is more than just a real estate venture," insists Clark Tibbitts, Chairman of the Committee on Aging of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"It's a pioneer effort to give expression to a new phase in the evolution of the American way of life," he claims.

Dr. George E. Beauchamp, a retired Veterans Administration official from Washington, D.C., organized the project, with the help of a half-dozen other D.C. doctors studying problems of the aged.

Federal Housing Administration experts cooperated by designing the basic layout of Orange Gardens. FHA also recommended allowing ordinary families with children to move in, to keep it from having the atmosphere of an old age institution.

Sponsors of the project don't guarantee jobs for everyone buying a house. But so far all of the retired and elderly persons who have wanted full or part-time employment have been aided in finding such a home.

The houses range in price from $7,000 to $10,000. Financing is arranged so that a couple with an income from $150 to $200 per month can handle the payments and live adequately.

While the houses of this project are designed to suit the special needs of older persons, many handicapped individuals have become interested and moved in. Dr. Beauchamp and the U.S. officials who cooperated in planning Orange Gardens believe that it will set a pattern for similar projects all over the U.S. and influence conventional home construction ideas.

Dock Workers Union To Place Embargo On Soviet Shipments

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—The head of the International Longshoremen's Assn. says that starting at noon today members will handle no cargoes bound to or from Russia until Soviet troops leave Hungary.

Capt. William V. Bradley, president of the independent water front union, yesterday pledged the embargo will go into effect "from New York to the Gulf Coast."

The noon starting time coincides with an "hour of homage" to the Hungarians now fighting the Communist regime in their country which is to take place at City Hall here.

Agent Files Suit For $750,000 Against TV Film Producer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Theatrical agent Hugh Hooker filed suit for $750,000 yesterday, charging that he was frozen out of a deal to produce a Rin Tin Tin series on television.

The suit was directed against Herbert Leonard, producer of the films; Lee Duncan, owner of the dog star Rin Tin Tin IV; Screen Gems Inc., the firm which released the pictures; the National Biscuit Co., sponsor; and the American Broadcasting Corp.

Hooker contended in his suit that Duncan told him he had abandoned the project, but that 100 films were later produced, resulting in 1 1/2-million-dollar profits.

Nighttime Singing May Go to Court Test

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Nighttime hymn-singing appears headed for a circuit court test. Householders told a county prosecutor their rest was disturbed by singing up to 11:30 p.m. and sometimes till midnight, three times a week, in a West Hollywood church.

The Rev. E. M. Muncy, pastor of the West Hollywood Church of God, said group singing was the manner in which the rites of his church are conducted "throughout Long, lean, and packed with punch, the new Ford Fairlane 500 is actually larger than many medium-priced cars . . . and it's offered at low Ford prices!

What's new in the new kind of Ford

NEW choice of sizes. These '57 Fords make "big" a low-priced word. The new Ford Custom and the Custom 300 are lower, wider, than any Ford before and over 16 feet long. The Fairlane and Fairlane 500 are even lower and longer . . . over 17 feet long! Ford is the only car in the low-price field that comes in two sizes. You'll find them all only roof high to a parking meter . . . and they're as easy to get in and out of as putting the coin in the meter slot! There are 20 beautiful new models to choose from.

NEW outswEEP chassis design cradles passengers in a new kind of way for a level, smoother ride. It's a completely new chassis idea wherein the frame flares out so that the floor of the rear seat compartment is inside the frame girders. There's more inside room than ever. And there's full road clearance under the heavier frame.

NEW hardtop styling. Fairlane and Fairlane 500 sedans have strong, thin center pillars which are concealed by window frames. With doors closed, you can hardly tell these sedans from hardtops.

NEW forward-hinged hood—and new engines to go under it! There's a mighty Silver Anniversary V-8 to fit every horsepower need. And there's more power and economy in the new Mileage Maker Six!

NEW low-sweep station wagon roof line. All five of Ford's new station wagons have even more of the beauty and love-for-duty that has made Ford America's favorite wagon. There are three with four doors, two with two doors . . . seating room for up to nine.

NEW wider wrap-around rear opening. A completely new litgate provides greater vision, easier loading. In length and width there's enough room to load a 9-foot boat.

NEW endurance and performance. In the most exhaustive test ever given an automobile, a '57 Ford traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days . . . an average speed of 108.16 mph—including all pit stops!
